

OBITUARY.

THE REV. THOMAS F. CULLEN.
Utica, N. Y., May 9.—The Rev. Thomas F. Cullen, pastor of St. John's Church, of this city, died early this morning. Father Cullen was about thirty-nine years old. Death was caused by hemorrhage from the stomach. He was a native of Syracuse. Previous to his taking charge of St. John's Parish, which is one of the largest and wealthiest congregations in the diocese of Syracuse, he had a congregation in Newark, N. Y., and previous to that was an assistant in Cohoes. He had been stationed in this city since January, 1887.

MRS. ERNEST BECKETT.
London, May 9.—Mrs. Ernest Beckett, only daughter of the late W. P. Lee, died today. Mrs. Beckett was the wife of Ernest Beckett, Conservative member of Parliament for the Whitchurch Division of the North Riding of Yorkshire. Mrs. Beckett died of pneumonia, and leaves a son, who was born Sunday last, and two daughters. Mr. Beckett is a partner in the firm of Messrs. Beckett, bankers, of Leeds, and is a captain in the Yorkshire Hussars.

CHARLES T. CLARK.

Binghamton, N. Y., May 9.—Charles T. Clark, ex-City Judge of Tioga County, died at his home in Owego this morning. He had held the office of County Judge and surrogate for two terms and declined a third term. He was born in Chenango County in 1833.

JEREMIAH G. HARRIS.

Nashville, Tenn., May 8.—Jeremiah George Harris, for many years bursar in the United States Navy, died at his home in this city at 6 o'clock this afternoon. He was eighty-one years old, and had lived permanently in Nashville since he was placed on the retired list. On the thirties Major Harris came to Nashville from Massachusetts, and was the editor of "The Union" and immediately associated in this capacity with Andrew Jackson.

THE PRINT CLOTH MARKET.

Fell River, Mass., May 9 (Special).—The print cloth market is still quiet with no immediate prospects of a change for the better. Sales have been light, few or no regular goods being called for, and odd goods have sold on a basis of 2½-16 cents, less 1 per cent, for 64s. Deliveries have not been large, and the stock on hand has increased 25,000 pieces. The prevailing depression is having a demoralizing effect on the mills, although a few of the mills have paid their quarterly dividends. Printers are bidding 27-8 cents for spot goods, and at that price they are not showing eagerness to buy. During the week the Weavers' Association has passed a resolution favoring curtailment as a remedy for overproduction, but manufacturers will not agree to a concerted movement for a shutdown. The cause of their stand is found in the fact that mills engaged on odd goods are making a little money from their wide looms, and their trustees state that the weavers must go to the mills if they cannot bear the strain. The money market here continues easy. The week's statement follows: Production, 200,000 pieces; deliveries, 165,000 pieces; sales, 900,000 pieces; 60x64s, 8,000 pieces; 64s, 2,000 pieces; 64x64s, 2,000 pieces; 64s, 2,000 pieces; 64x64s, 26,000 pieces; spots, 6ds, 108,000 pieces; 64x64s, 26,000 pieces; spots, 36,000 pieces; futures, 46,000 pieces; sales for future delivery, 10,000 pieces; June 10, 74,000 pieces; July 1, 43,000 pieces; August, 23,000 pieces; September, 10,000 pieces; October, 1,000 pieces; November, 1,000 pieces. The market is quiet; prices 2½-16 cents, less 1 per cent, for 64s; 2½-16 cents for 60x64s.

AN INTERVIEW WITH EX-SENATOR SABIN.

Boston, May 9 (Special).—Ex-Senator D. M. Sabin, of Minnesota, who has lately returned from abroad, was seen at the Parker House this morning and he consented to express his views on the general situation in the West. Although he has been out of the country for some time the Senator has kept fully informed on Western matters. He said that the wheat crop was the subject of his special attention, although he also knew that the condition of all crops was most favorable. Senator Sabin talked freely on general matters, but when asked about politics in the West he grew more cautious and desired to be quoted accurately. In regard to the Farmers' Alliance, he said: "I think the old and famous alliance will have a very soothing effect on the Alliance as well as on the finance of the West in general, and while strong and well organized in many localities I have my doubts as to its becoming a permanent factor in the West. In our opinion at the time, contrary to the expectations of the Democrats and of many Republicans also, the Alliance vote drew proportionately from both parties, rather a noteworthy incident and one which deserves attention. The significance of this is apparent and I doubt if either party, as a party, will control the Farmers' Alliance."

DEATH OF MRS. GEORGE M. SNOW.

Frances M., widow of George M. Snow, died yesterday morning after a long illness, at her home, No. 74 Madison Avenue. She was the daughter of Nathan Jackson, who, during his life, gave liberally to Williams College in buildings and endowments; and she was a direct descendant of Colonel Giles Jackson, who, while a member of General George's staff, drew up the papers for the surrender of Yorktown, the original draft being now in the possession of the family. The ready hospitality offered by Mrs. Snow at the house where she has lived during the years which have intervened to its becoming a permanent feature of New York. In our opinion at the time, contrary to the expectations of the Democrats and of many Republicans also, the Alliance vote drew proportionately from both parties, rather a noteworthy incident and one which deserves attention. The significance of this is apparent and I doubt if either party, as a party, will control the Farmers' Alliance."

GENERAL MILES'S RETURN TO CHICAGO.

Chicago, May 9.—General Nelson A. Miles and family have returned to this city from an extended trip through Mexico and the West. The members of the family are all in excellent health. The General found a great change in the attitude of the Apache in New-Mexico since the departure of their mischief-making leaders. They are now devoting themselves to agriculture, and the General has no fears of any further trouble with them.

TAMPERING WITH A LEGISLATIVE BILL.

Washington, D. C., May 9 (Special).—Some one tampered with a bill in the General Assembly, and the "ride" was left both houses before it was discovered. City Solicitor Lyman, who prepared the bill, saw the crooked amendment and reported it to the General Assembly, which immediately appointed an investigation committee. The "ride" has the effect of extending the term of the Democratic city auditor from the present year until 1898. Suspicion points to a well-known local politician, who carried the bill from Dover to this city. There is no law covering the deed, but the Legislature will prohibit the guilty person from ever entering the State House again. This is the second bill tampered with this session.
